

During the summer it is so important to keep literacy skills sharp and developing. Literacy has four components: reading, writing, speaking and listening. Below are fun ways to practice them all and share your great summer books and adventures!

Visit the Hall County Schools Summer Reading website for summer literacy information and opportunities.

<https://readingrocket.hallco.org/>

Reading Will Take You Places! Where Are You Reading Today?

Upload pictures of yourself reading in different places this summer!

Click here: <https://photos.app.goo.gl/1AFrWJwLi4CdhFMF7>

What are you reading?

Share the books you are reading by creating a video sharing the title, author, your favorite parts and where others can find it. Click here to create yours!

Are you looking for great book suggestions? Check out the suggested summer reading lists on the Hall County Schools Summer Reading webpage.

Click here: <https://www.hallco.org/web/summer-reading-lists/>

Read and Listen to great stories in the car, in the tent, on the beach, or wherever you are!

If you have a public library card, you have 24/7 access to eBooks, magazines, music, video and more!

https://hallcountylibrary.org/services/community/audio_books_ebooks_music_movies_tv_magazines.php

Log onto Launchpoint this summer! Click on Sora, Moby Max, Learning A-Z, Storybird, Tumble Books, Pebble Go, and more to practice all of the components of literacy.

<https://go.hallco.org>

Summer Reading BINGO!

Can you fill up the summer reading Space BINGO card? Each child received a copy in their summer reading packet.

Click here to download an extra copy.

Reading fun for the whole family all summer long at the Hall County Public Library!

Readers of all ages can join the fun at the public library this summer.

Click here to see all of the fun events!

Click here to learn how you can register to earn points and prizes.

Reading Makes Life Sweeter—Books and Bundts Reading!

Complete your June and July Nothing Bundt Cakes Reading Tracker. Take it to Nothing Bundt Cakes on Jesse Jewell for a free treat! Each child received a copy in their summer reading packet. Click here to download an extra copy.

Earn a free book from Barnes and Noble!

Read 8 books and complete the Barnes and Noble reading log. Take your completed log to any Barnes and Noble to get a free book. Each child received a copy in their summer reading packet.

Click here to download an extra copy.